RE: 'Uploading Books Directly Into Your Brain...'

I have a question...

"Do you like to read books?"

We all know the VALUE of books. We all know how powerful the right book can be at the right moment, but so many of us forget or just don't have the time to read every day.

On this page, I'm going to reveal how you can read and finish one book per week... in JUST 15 minutes!

Sounds interesting, right?

The books you will be reading have been handpicked and can have a huge impact on your life. Personal AND professional!

Books like “How to Win Friends & Influence People” (Dale Carnegie) and "Think & Grow Rich" (Napoleon Hill) have been proven to change a LOT of people’s lives around the world!

Now, imagine if you could read one powerful book this week, then read another one next week and so on...

WITHOUT having to actually own the book or read a single page of it!

All in UNDER 15 minutes per week...

Your life will change in front of your eyes!

Your brain is a powerful and unique muscle. The kind of information you feed it will affect how you see life and the results you get.

Only feed it with the right information -- the right kind of wisdom-adding, knowledge-expanding information and you'll get the right life and the right results.

The best thing is you can do this for only about 15 minutes per week!

How?

First, I want to share a secret with you...

What Authors ARE HIDING From You...

Here's a secret about authors;

When they write a book, they have ONE core message that they want to convey. ONE golden nugget of information.

This core message is the idea behind the book they wrote. But the core message? That can usually be conveyed in one paragraph.

But do that and no publisher would even consider working with them because their book will be too short. The publisher couldn't sell a one page book for $19.99...

So what do these authors do to get their book published and eventually sell?

They add "fluff"!

"Fluff" is a super-technical term for filler stories.

These extra examples and imagery that doesn't do much apart from "balloon" up the content so publishers will consider selling their book!

It makes sense for businesses too. Because they won't earn much if the book has little content.

Which means.. you're paying extra for the "fluff". Now you don't have to anymore. Few know that they don't need to read any of that extra content to understand the author's core message. So why not skip them and go straight to the meat and not pay for those useless "fluff"?

A Concentrated but Potent Dose of Wisdom

By taking away all of the fluff, me and my team of trained readers are able to extract the true intended meaning and message of the book and form them into smaller, bite-sized summaries.

These summaries can be absorbed in just 15 minutes.

Instead of you having to go through the entire book, full of fluff... we'll give you a tightly-squeeze juice of concentrated content that serves only to share the intended message and lessons by the author.

Now imagine just spending about 15 minutes a week looking at that concentrated content.

Each week you'll completely absorb a fresh, new book – installing invaluable knowledge and wisdom straight into your brain – and you'll do this for an ENTIRE YEAR.

What do you think will happen to you?

Now, I can't guarantee you'll be super-successful. If you don't implement what you learn - nothing will change. But I can guarantee that you will get all the information you need from decades of great business owners and self-help gurus in just 15 minutes per week.

Here's a startling fact: The average number of books a casual reader reads in a year is around 6. Those who read a lot... only 15! But if you join us today, you'll be able to complete a whopping 52 books!

The idea for 52BooksAYear is simple: To help you understand and absorb 1 book per week for a year, in only 15 minutes.

Let me explain how that is done:

Step #1 - The Summary:

My team of readers will summarize each of the books for you – removing all the fluff and extracting only the important parts.

These are not more 'fluff'... these are steps you can actively take to improve every area of your life! Follow the steps we lay out and you'll see huge improvement in your life.

The best thing is, you don't even have to purchase the book... saving you from unnecessary spending!
